CHILDREN'S SPORTS.

Happy Kowloon Function.

New Year's Day on the Kowloon children was, as usual, a happy time, due to the thoughtfulness of the Kowloon Cricket Club, which, following the success they attained last year, on Saturday held their annual children's sports gala in which many hundreds of youngsters participated. The programme made equal division of chances for boys and girls, and the function contributed to the happiness of all, in view of the large number of prizes presented, and the unremitting attention of the officials who assumed charge of the meeting. The grounds of the Club acquired a holiday appearance with the flags and bunting that were on display, whilst, embowered in a leafy enclosure, His Excellency the Governor and Lady Stubbs watched the proceedings, and derived from the occasion fresh testimony to the community spirit of Kowloon. A number of delightful diversions, such as the bran tub, the skittles and "Humpty Dumpty" added to the general attraction and it must be admitted that the continuance of the officials greatly augmented the demand for prizes for this class of sportsmanship. The parents of the children were present in large numbers, while the Band of the Wilshires contributed to the general enjoyment.

The officials were as follows: Patron: H.E. Sir R. E. Stubbs, K.C.M.G. President: Dr. Chas. Forsyth, Vice-President and Chairman of Committee: Mr. A. O. Brown.

Committee: Messrs. A. W. E. Davidson, B. D. Evans, G. W. Avenell, V. C. Labrum, J. McMurtrie, Ralston, W. T. Elson, F. G. Herdridge, R. H. Jewsbury, H. E. Stevens, Hon. Secretary, and E. Abraham, Hon. Treasurer. Judges: Messrs. A. O. Brown, G. F. Nightingale, J. Stalker, D. A. Purvis, C. W. Jeffries, W. Goldenberg, D. J. McKenzie, and J. Lyons.

Handicappers and Starters: Messrs. R. C. Wicheil, D. G. Nichol, G. Stark, F. G. Herdridge, F. P. Leffestey, J. Ralston, R. Chatterton, S. J. Clarke, M. L. Ralston, Pritchard, and C. Mycock.

Clerks of the Course: Messrs. C. R. B. Newton, J. M. Jack, F. P. Shroff, W. R. Farmer, N. L. H. Wailton, A. E. Thompson, M. J. Henderson, A. R. P. Davies, and H. J. Farmer.

Decorations: Messrs. J. H. Donnitthorne, R. E. Nicholls, W. Greig, E. W. White, J. H. Kynoch, J. Jenner, W. Davidson, Chatterton, and G. W. Avenell.

Entertainment: Mesdames A. O. Brown, H. E. Stevens, J. H. Donnitthorne, Purvis, Chatterton, M. L. Ralston, N. L. H. Wailton, S. J. Clarke, Howie, Wicheil, Nightingale, Summers, and Miss Goodall, Messrs. D. J. McKenzie, P. W. A. Wilkie, B. D. Evans, R. H. Jewsbury, D. Neilson, D. M. Goodall, G. V. Hughes, W. T. Elson, and J. Gibson.

Bran Tub: Mesdames E. Abraham, A. W. E. Davidson, E. W. White, Skinner, Caygill, Miss Summers, and Messrs. H. Overly, W. T. Elson, F. Abraham, and J. C. Finch.

Hon. Secretary: Mr. A. W. E. Davidson.

The presentation of prizes was made by Lady Stubbs in the Club house at the conclusion of the sports.

Dr. C. Forsyth, President, voiced the Club's welcome to His Excellency and Lady Stubbs. He said the sports started from a very small beginning 12 or 14 years ago, with a few children of the members, including himself, but they had gradually expanded and the large gathering present spoke eloquently of the increase of the population. Many of the members had since become married men and some of their children were among the prize winners. From a modest beginning the sports had become such a popular and big annual event that the question of finance had to be considered in running them. At one time it was suggested that they enlist the assistance of the Hongkong people, but the members had got together and had since conducted the sports at their own expense. He thanked the prize donors, the various sports committees and the ladies who took charge of the tea. (Applause.)

Lady Stubbs then gave away the prizes, and at the conclusion was presented with a beautiful bouquet in a silver vase by Mrs. Winnie Lawson.

Dr. Forsyth: "I will not detain you any longer seeing so many anxious mothers looking at their watches." He then called for three cheers and a "tiger" which were cordially responded to.

THE DISARMAMENT QUESTION.

London, Dec. 31.
The "Times" in a leader on disarmament declares that the anxiety of the Americans with regard to the Anglo-Japanese Alliance is due to ignorance and emphasises the belief of many Americans that Britain is bound by Treaty to support Japan in a war against the United States as grotesquely false. It points out that the stipulations of the Treaty was deliberately varied in 1911 for the express purpose of excluding the possibility of incurring this liability. This was done after the fullest consultation with responsible Ministers of the British Dominions, who, it is known, could in no conceivable circumstances be induced to fight against America in such a combination. As regards the objection that in the absence of an Anglo-American renewal of the Arbitration Treaty the exemption clause of the Treaty does not apply, the "Times" points out that Britain notified Japan that she would regard the Anglo-American Peace Commissions Treaty of September, 1914, as a general arbitration treaty within the meaning of the exemption clause.

Washington, Dec. 31.
Senator Borah announces that a special meeting of the Senate Foreign Committee will be called on Jan. 3rd to consider his resolution requesting the President to negotiate with Britain and Japan for an agreement with the United States to reduce naval armaments.

London, Dec. 31.
The "Daily Mail" correspondent in New York says that Mr. McCumber, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, after an interview with Senator Harding, declared that both the Military and Naval expenditure must be curtailed. He was satisfied that a war can be found for agreement among larger nations of decrease in armaments. Mr. McCumber thought, however, it was too late. Ships were already being constructed.

London, Dec. 31.
The "Westminster Gazette" in a leader referring to Senator Borah's resolution, says America may be sure that any advance along the path of reduction of naval armaments will be met halfway by Britain, but if America builds a great fleet, reason in these matters has small chance of a hearing. Building will inevitably begin in every country, having large interests on the sea and beggaring competition in land armaments, which will be transferred to the waters. It emphasises similarly that the "Times" American suspicions arising from the Anglo-Japanese Alliance are baseless. Dealing with the statement of Baron Hayashi in the "Morning Post" that the Japanese Navy is not aggressive, but necessary for defence, and new ships are necessitated by Japanese warships, being made useless by Britain's super-dreadnoughts, etc., the "Westminster Gazette" says that's the kind of argument that will lead to endless competition in new arms of every kind, and it declares that the most bitter lesson of history taught that vast armaments would neither ensure peace nor give security in war. We must find another way, namely, conciliation, arbitration and mutual combination to guarantee all nations against the ambitious aggressions of any one of them.

INDIAN NATIONAL CONGRESS.

Nagpur, Dec. 30.
2,000 delegates, including several thousand women, attended the National Congress. Some disturbance among the Bengalis over the election of Committee Members, led to the use of long sticks. The Chairman of the Congress emphasised that the cow question was insoluble until Home Rule was attained.

The All India Students Conference passed a resolution in favour of an immediate unconditional boycott of the Government and aided schools.

Gandhi moved a resolution amending the constitution to the effect that the object of the Congress is the attainment of Home Rule by all legitimate and peaceful means.

Pandit Malaviya gave notice of an amendment after the words Home Rule adding "or full and responsible government within the British Commonwealth."

Nagpur, Jan. 1.
Gandhi's resolution was carried with only two dissentients.

The Congress also resolved that the scheme of non-violent non-co-operation adopted at an earlier Congress, including renunciation of voluntary association with the present Government and refusal to pay taxes, be partially or wholly enforced when determined by the Congress Committee.

JAPANESE IMMIGRATION.

Washington, Dec. 31.
The American papers have lately been drawing attention to the possibility of a combination between Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa with the United States with a view to maintaining a united front against Japanese immigration. The idea appears to have originated in a recent speech made by Senator Lodge, in which he declared he would welcome some kind of arrangement with the Dominions regarding Asiatic immigration, declaring that "their danger is the same as ours." Searching investigation failed to produce evidence pointing to the existence or progress of any formal negotiations with the view to the conclusion of such arrangement. Senator Lodge declined to elaborate his view.

Embassy circles point out that at present there appears to be no occasion for the adoption of any new policy by Britain or the Dominions as regards Japan, while by Treaty arrangements, some of which are anti-date Japan's rise to a position of a first-class Power, the right of local Dominion Governments to control Japanese immigration and similar questions has been fully established, and these powers have been exercised for many years without protest from Japan. Therefore, it is declared, the situation in these Dominions, is radically different from the Pacific Coast and the States of America, where Japanese claim they have been enjoying certain privileges of American citizenship under the provisions of a Japanese-American Treaty.

BRITAIN'S WAR DEBT.

Washington, Jan. 1.
It is announced that Lord Chalmers has been selected British delegate to negotiate with the United States Treasury on the question of refunding the Britain's war debt, etc. The Treasury officials opine that the discussion will be brief. Interest will probably be fixed on the basis of five per cent, but Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Treasury, advocates less, saying they must deal with the Allies' debts fairly.

JAPANESE LAND LEGISLATION IN CALIFORNIA.

Washington, Dec. 31.
A meeting of the California Delegation Congress discussed Japanese land legislation and adjourned without formulating any definite course of action.

THE INTERNATIONAL ARMY.

Hague, Dec. 31.
The interim report of the Committee of the Second Chamber, regarding the Bill authorising the despatch of a contingent of Dutch troops to participate in the supervision of the Vinea plebiscite, shows that there are strong objections to this course in view of the possibility of Holland being involved in international complications.

FRENCH SOCIALIST CONFERENCE.

Paris, Dec. 27.
The French Socialist party is holding at Tours a general conference to decide upon important questions, especially whether the party shall join the Third International and accept the communist programme drawn up by Moscow.

From the first the delegates appeared to be profoundly divided among themselves, four tendencies being discernible—first, the pure extremists accepting the Moscow programme without reservation; second, the moderates accepting the programme with reservations; and so far holding the majority it seems; third, the so-called reconstruction group, who accept joining the Internationale, but deny Moscow any right to rule the world's Socialism; fourth, members of the old French Socialist party, who refuse joining the Internationale and set up a sensible doctrine against Lenin's utopian scheme.

Sharp discussion already seems unavoidable, and this fact will greatly distress the old school of Socialists who believe Bolshevism, which has already caused the splitting of the Socialist parties in Germany, Italy and Switzerland, is sure to have a like result in France. As Deputy Faure pointed out the Bolshevism doctrine in France has already resulted in frightening the people masses against whose hostility last spring's strikes utterly collapsed. The General Labour Confederation lost half its membership, while the Agricultural Confederation, which, as M. Faure stated, is in the hands of the employers, increased its membership tremendously, chiefly among farmers and field workers. Summing up the situation, "Le Temps" states that the French nation anyhow will not stand being bullied by a handful of fanatics, and any Bolshevistic attempt will find the Government ready, fully supported as it is by the immense majority of the French people who stoutly believe their salvation is only in unrelenting work not in revolution.

Paris, Dec. 30.
The French Socialist Congress at Tours declared for adhesion to the Moscow International by three thousand votes to twelve hundred.

Tours, Dec. 30.
The Socialists of the Right and Centre parties are holding a common conference with the view to securing an anti-communist fusion. M. Frossard, addressing the Communist section, urged that a manifesto be sent to members to remain in the party despite the fact that sixty-three Deputies have gone to the Right while only twelve have joined the Communists.

In the Chamber, a question as to how Clara Zetkin, the German Communist, reached the Tours Congress, elicited from M. Steeg, Minister of the Interior, the fact that the French Embassy in Berlin refused passports to four members of the Reichstag to go to Tours. The Government would not tolerate foreigners coming to France to preach civil war. Clara Zetkin evaded precautions on the frontier. Her speech, however, showed that Bolshevist propaganda was percolating through Berlin to outside nations. (Cheers.)

There was a tumultuous scene when the President called to order a Socialist who said the Socialists at Tours did well to applaud Clara Zetkin's speech. The President reiterated that those are words that Frenchmen would refuse to listen to.

TRADE DEPRESSION.

London, Jan. 1.
With a view to providing employment for the greatest possible number either presently engaged or recently discharged, it is announced that the Cabinet propose as far as possible to place all Government industrial establishments on short time. The Government has also asked municipal and private employers to act similarly and appeals to the trade unions to co-operate in this endeavour to tide over the period of depression.

The Minister of Labour has sent a letter to the Federation of Building Operatives regretting that a definite reply had not been received up to 31st Dec. to the dilution proposals. He hopes that as the matter is urgent a definite final reply will be received within a fortnight. The Ministry of Labour announces that over eight thousand are working on new arterial roads in addition to many employed by local authorities on the maintenance of main roads and miscellaneous schemes, while seven thousand are employed on sewerage and housing schemes which have been accelerated to meet the present situation.

Lord St. David's Committee on unemployment is sitting continuously and has already approved of a number of relief schemes.

The Government's scheme to mitigate unemployment is issued in the form of an appeal through the Federation of British Industries and Chambers of Commerce to employers to introduce short time all round, suggesting the co-operation of Trade Unions, and mentions that the Government is already applying short time in the Dockyards and Naval establishments. It is planned to do everything possible but the Government relies on employers and workpeople to diminish unemployment.

MEDICAL RESEARCH COUNCIL.

London, Jan. 1.
The report of the Medical Research Council includes a covering despatch by Mr. Balfour, as President of the Privy Council, who points out that the Council's work is already closely related to the work of the Ministry of Health, especially in tuberculosis, venereal and hygienic measures. The Council's work is also serving the interests of other Departments of State, notably in connection with enquiries as to industrial diseases, including miners nystagmus. He concludes that the Council has been directed to consider how their research organisation may be brought into useful relationship to corresponding organisations of the Dominions and also to similar research work elsewhere in the Empire.

THE RUBBER MARKET.

London, Dec. 31.
The "Times" says that owing to the continued weakness of rubber, some plantation companies have been urging the Rubber Growers' Association to adopt measures for curtailing output by more than the existing twenty-five per cent. Indeed some propose that the Association should bring about complete cessation of tapping. It is unlikely, however, the Association will act precipitately. Some experts opine it is impossible to enforce a complete stoppage of production. Probably the industry will surmount the present ordeal by a compromise between voluntary restriction and a curtailment of production.

BRITAIN'S COAL OUTPUT.

London, Dec. 31.
The coal output last week amounted to 5,100,000 tons, which is the highest since the war, almost reaching the point when the miners under the Coal Agreement receive four shillings extra daily. It is expected that plentiful supplies of coal will help the expansion of industries, thus relieving unemployment.

SILVER EXPORT.

Douglas, Arizona, Dec. 31.
It is officially reported from Mexico that no export duties on silver sent from the United States are required while the price at the New York Stock Exchange remains at sixty cents, but when it rises above that figure, a sliding export scale will become effective.

HONGKONG UNIVERSITY.

BAVARIAN DEFENCE CORPS.

Berlin, Dec. 31.

AUSTRALIA AND CANADA.

London, Dec. 31.
The "Times" Melbourne correspondent says that the Federal Government admits that preliminary negotiations for a reciprocal trade agreement have taken place with Canada. A new tariff, which has not yet been sanctioned, provides for reciprocity agreements with other Dominions.

KRASSIN'S ALLEGED RECALL.

London, Dec. 30.
Reuter learns that the Government has no knowledge of the reported recall of M. Krassin. Negotiations with him were proceeding on the 29th Dec. when it was arranged these would be continued on the 31st. It is not true that Britain desired to depart from the agreement reached in June.

WRANGLER'S DESTITUTE ARMY.

London, Dec. 31.
The "Chronicle's" Athens correspondent says the Greek Government is seriously embarrassed by the remnants of Wrangel's starving typhus-stricken army in Gallipoli. They are armed with ten thousand rifles, and mutiny is feared. The Greeks have cordoned off the peninsula and are supplying stores.

STRANGE NEW YEAR VISIT.

Chinese Found Underneath the Table.

The mystery concerning the doing of Wong Wing Fung, as to whether on New Year's Eve he visited his late master's residence for old time's sake or for an unlawful purpose, was left unclear when his conduct came up for examination by the Magistrate this morning.

He was charged, at the instance of the Wanchai Police, with being found in No. 33, Morrison Hill Road the residence of his late master, Mr. Ferdinand Dubois with felonious intent, and, in reply to the charge, he stated that he did not understand Cantonese.

Sergeant Kelly was informed that the man spoke French.

Sgt. Kelly:—He understands Cantonese all right.

The Magistrate (Mr. G. N. Orme):—Of course, he does. He wants to air his French.

Deciding to humour the fastidious Wong, His Worship then read out the charge in French.

The defendant replied, and His Worship exclaimed:—He speaks French very well; he knows it better than I do.

They tried Wong in Cantonese, but he expostulated:—I speak French. I speak English. I no speak Cantonese.

The Magistrate:—He wants this opportunity of keeping his French up.

Sergeant Kelly:—One of the new constables speaks French, your Worship.

This difficulty having been settled, Mr. Ferdinand Dubois was called into the box to give evidence. He testified to the linguistic ability of the defendant in both the Cantonese and French languages. The man had been in his employ, and was dismissed two months ago. On Friday night, witness and a number of friends were gathered round the table in the dining room to celebrate the coming of the New Year, when one of them kicked against a person hiding under the table, and, on bringing him out into the light, they discovered that the defendant was the intruder.

Witness supposed that the defendant was alarmed when he and his friends entered the room, and had taken refuge under the table.

The Magistrate:—How do you think he got there?

Witness:—We afterwards found a key near where the defendant concealed himself. It fitted exactly the lock of the front door.

Magistrate (to the Interpreter):—Tell the defendant that he can now ask his questions in French or English.

In further evidence, Mr. Dubois said that the defendant might have come into the house to sleep.

The Magistrate:—Of course, that is an important question. He may have come in just for "auld lang syne", as it was New Year's Eve. I have to judge from the circumstance whether he had felonious intent.

The witness:—I think it was possible he had no felonious intent. I employed him for two and a half years and found him quite honest.

The Magistrate:—He is a curious character. He was quite honest whilst you had him?

Witness:—Yes. He was lazy, but he never stole anything. He was dismissed for laziness.

The Magistrate decided to remand the case until to-morrow to obtain the evidence of the house-boy who found the key with which the defendant was alleged to have obtained entry into the house.

CURED OF MALARIA BY
DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS
8 YEARS AGO AND STILL WELL.

STRIKING TESTIMONY FROM BURMA.

Mr. D. T. Paul was station master at Tharrawaddy, on the Burma Government Railway, in 1912 when he gave the following testimony. Seen again recently at Gyobingauk Railway Station, Burma, where he is now station master, he reported himself as still in excellent health. What better evidence could be wished as to the permanence of the cures wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills!

"The malarial attacks used to start with a feeling of lassitude and pains in my back and lower limbs," said Mr. Paul. "Meat became repugnant. Prolonged fits of shivering followed and left my body cold all over. Then my temperature would rise until perspiration simply poured out of me. These continual attacks made me very thin and weak. None of the so-called remedies I tried did me any good."

"A friend told me that the only sure cure was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, so I gave them a trial. After a week's treatment I felt that these Pills were invigorating me. It was wonderful how soon my appetite returned and refreshing sleep came to me at night. When getting up in the morning I felt bright and contented. A three weeks' course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills made me a stronger man of me."

As a remedy for diseases arising from vitiated, watery blood or disordered nerves Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the famous Blood Builder and Nerve Tonic, have a world-wide reputation. They are obtainable from medicine vendors everywhere, also post free, 1 bottle for $1.50, 6 bottles $8, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

LANGUAGE DIFFICULTY IN INDIAN MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

At a meeting of the Commissioners of the Chandpur Municipality, Bengal, the proceedings and the discussion went on in English. There were some among the commissioners who were ignorant of the English language. They urged upon the "English-knowing" commissioners to hold the discussions in Bengali, and as no heed was given to them, they informed the chairman that they had not understood what took place, and they did not subscribe to the resolutions. The incident created a great sensation locally, states the report.

Sir W. Robertson Nicoll has been raising his voice in protest against the increasing use of dots in fiction. "A vile practice," he called it. Novel readers have had a lot of this kind of thing:—"You blinking idiot!" exclaimed Frank. There was a sound of smashing glass, and then... silence. But the sensational novelist is not the only culprit. Writers of all sorts and sizes disclose a tendency to become more "dotty." It is one of the most disquieting symptoms of the age. Now, with stars it is quite different, states a writer in a home journal. The star in its proper place is a thing of beauty. They produce the maximum of literary twinkle with the minimum of effort.

General Sir Charles Townshend's election for the Wrekin Division gives us that rather rare figure in our history, a famous soldier in the House of Commons. The first Duke of Wellington is the outstanding instance of a great soldier in politics, but he had to sit in the House of Lords. The late Lord Charles Beresford is the most famous instance, in modern history, of a distinguished soldier in Parliament. But although Lords French, Haig, Jellicoe and Grey, to mention only a few, have taken their seats in the Upper Chamber, the soldier or sailor in politics is not a common figure in this country.

The new Lord Fermoy is not the only holder of a peerage who is domiciled in the United States. Lord Grey de Ruthyn, twenty-fifth Baron and Hereditary Bearer of the Great Gold Spur at the Coronations, became an American citizen thirty years ago on purchasing the Montana ranch, where he still lives. On the other hand, Lord Fairfax, whose six immediate predecessors in the peerage were American citizens, is domiciled in England and sits in the House of Lords as a Scottish representative peer. Several baronets have become American citizens, the best known being Sir William Waller, who owns a chain of department stores in New Jersey. Sir George Compton Roadhead of the family to which Charles Roadhead

FOOTBALL.

Charity Match.

Teams representing the "British Isles" and "The Rest," chosen from players in the Second Division of the Hongkong League, met on the Club ground on Saturday last in aid of local charities.

The Rest started the game before a large crowd and the Isles were early defending, for the Rest went away with a dash and Omar forced a corner which was cleared. Play was transferred to the other end, but the Rest returned and Omar coming in from the right beat the backs and scored, giving the Rest the lead after a few minutes' play. The game was very fast, but the team representing the Isles could not combine. Just before half-time, Bath receiving well in, passed out to Lees, who sent into the net and the teams crossed over with the score one all.

Resuming, the Rest took up the attack and McLeod had a lot to do to keep his goal intact. From a break away by the Isles the forwards missed an easy chance of taking the lead, for with only the goalie to beat Lees failed to accept a pass from the right and a good chance went begging.

Returning, the Rest bombarded the Isles' goal but their shooting was erratic. Following a scrimmage in the Isles' area, the Rest added to their score through So Chung-ming. Immediately the ball was started from the centre, the whistle sounded for time, with "The Rest" winners by two goals to one.

Mr. Wells was the referee. "The Rest" were much the better team and deserved to win a greater margin. Their forwards played good combination owing to four of them being chosen from the same team. Hyndman played well at back.

For the Isles, McLeod played well in goal and the winning point was scored while he was full length on the ground. The backs chafed well, but the forwards were strangers to each other and combination was lacking.

the novelist, belonged, was born in Dexter, Michigan, and still lives there. Sir James Stuart-Menteth was also born in the United States, and has remained there all his life.

DAY BY DAY.

It is notified that Mr. George Herbert Wakeman having returned to the Colony, resumed duty as Crown Solicitor on the 31st December.

His many friends in Hongkong will be interested to hear that Dr. Lander, who resigned the Bishopric of Victoria last June, has accepted the living of Lyonsdown, New Barnet, Herts.

His Excellency the Governor has under instructions from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, appointed Mr. Thomas Maynard Hazlerigg to be Assistant Crown Solicitor.

It is hoped to give the short Oratorio "By Faith Alone" (Harvey Gaul) in St. John's Cathedral on Good Friday, at 9.15 p.m., in its entirety. Practices will be held at 8 p.m., in the Cathedral, on Thursdays in Lent, commencing Thursday, February 10th. Mr. Denman Fuller will be glad to hear from any willing to assist as soon as possible.

Mabel Normand as "Jinx" has amused her admirers at the Coronet since her first appearance on Saturday. Seen in the character of the tomboy, which has made her very popular, she provides much laughter, in conjunction with Harry Pollard, who stars in one of his own inimitable comedies. This same programme is being continued to-day.

The Kowloon Fire Brigade under the command of Mr. T. H. King, turned out to attend to an outbreak which occurred on New Year's Eve, at about 8 o'clock in the evening, in No. 147, She Po Street. The blame for the disaster is laid on a rat who is reputed to have upset an oil-lamp. The house was destroyed, damage to the extent of $300 being registered.

Charged with endeavouring to palm off a dud ten cent piece on a money changer, a Chinese was this morning, on the evidence of the latter, sentenced to six weeks' hard labour. A lot of admiration was expressed over the remarkable quality of the imitation, and the prosecuting Police Officer confessed that he once had been duped with one coin. There was an epidemic of bad coins in the Western district, it was stated.

The discovery of the remains of a Chinese woman, whose appearance indicated her to be about 35 years of age, was made in a pathway leading from the Upper to the Lower Albert Road, near the Government Offices, on Sunday. There were marks on her face and neck, which have given rise to the suspicion that she might have been strangled to death. The condition of the clothing indicated that the body was dragged for some distance before being finally disposed in the pathway.

At the Police Court to-day, a ricksha coolie appeared as the complainant in a charge brought against a fare for assault. According to the evidence of this coolie, the defendant, with a friend, engaged his ricksha and another to proceed from the Star Ferry to a house near the Sun Company. On arrival at this destination, a fare of fifteen cents was offered to both coolies, who refused to accept it. The complainant, to whom this money was handed, was assaulted, being, in fact, kicked in the stomach. In a condition of extreme pain, he was taken to the Central Police Station along with his assailant, and from there sent by the Police Inspector to the Government Civil Hospital. It was thought that he was suffering from a ruptured spleen, but on examination by the Hospital Surgeon, it was ascertained that this was not the case, though the injuries received were of a painful character. The defendant, who was refused bail, appeared before the Court this morning, when he was ordered to pay a fine of $5 to the Court and a similar sum to the coolie as compensation.

GERMAN FINANCIAL POSITION.

The German Government has handed to the Entente a memorandum from the Ministry of Finance outlining German finances to 31st July, a report on revenue and the floating debt till 30th November, the budget for 1920, and a report on the issue of paper money and development of the German exchange issue since 1914.

THE CATHEDRAL.

An Eventful Year.

The following is from Church Notes (St. John's Cathedral Magazine):—

The past year has been an eventful one in the history of the diocese and the Cathedral. Change of Bishops is always a great event in a diocese. Let us remember that as we prayed that the right man might be appointed to the diocese so now we must endeavour to sustain him by our prayers. It is a difficult post to be Bishop of this diocese with a population of 70,000,000 and an area of 400,000 square miles, and it is not easy to master the language which is the first essential to the discharge of the Episcopal office.

The past year has also seen the need of some place for meetings and classes and entertainments in connection with the Cathedral, at last met by the erection of the Cathedral Hall.

The generous endowment fund of Sir Paul Chater which was given last April will have done much towards putting the finances of the Cathedral on a sounder basis. The interest from this endowment will be payable next April.

The year past has seen the commencement of the erection of the memorial in the compound to the Hongkong men who fell in the War. The reredos which Mrs. Bowdler has promised has not yet been erected, owing to the difficulty of getting suitable plans, but the design was agreed upon several months ago and we hope the reredos will be in position some time this year. During the year past we have once again been able to secure the help of an assistant Chaplain, and Mr. Holman is already well known amongst us. As the Senior Chaplain expects to go home on leave in April, some arrangement for clerical assistance ought to be made, for it is not right to expect one priest to carry on the work of the Cathedral single handed. There ought to be at least two priests always here at the Cathedral. It is to be hoped that adequate arrangements will be made during this year to place the income of the Bishop on a satisfactory basis, and to solve the question of an Episcopal residence.

The want of a house for the Chaplain is another need which hinders the work of the church here and which ought to receive attention. It is a matter for surprise that St. John's Cathedral has never yet had any clergy house connected with it and it is in this matter in a worse position than the other churches in the Colony.

The Cathedral and the Cathedral Hall.—The Hall will probably be finished some time in January. But it not certain at the time of writing exactly how soon it will be ready for opening. We hope to announce the date shortly. It looks very much as if we shall have to use the new hall for services for a time as reports from the architects, Messrs Leigh and Orange, give the unpleasant information that there are white ants in the roof of the Cathedral and also in the flooring. We hope that the discovery of these unwelcome attendants at Church may have taken place before they have done very much damage. It will be a very grave inconvenience if

WORLD WIDE SPORT.

For some time it has been known that the Prince of Wales had intention shortly to register his colours under the rules of racing. I now hear (writes a correspondent of the London Evening News) that he has definitely selected them, and that they will be composed of scarlet body, with purple sleeves.

The American women's hockey team were beaten by eight goals to two at Copse Hill, Wimbledon, by a team of Surrey women. The Americans played a more vigorous game, but sacrificed much in striving to hit the ball as hard as possible. The English women showed far cleverer stick play, and they had a better idea of the finer points of hockey.

At an informal supper of the Gloucestershire County Club George Dennett, the slow left-handed bowler, received a cheque for nearly £1300, the proceeds of his benefit match in August, and donations from subscribers, who recognised not only Dennett's cricket services to his country but also his military services to his country during the war, his term in the Army lasting five years.

Miss Molly Griffiths, of the Sunningdale Club, will shortly leave England for an extended tour in India and Australia. She will be accompanied by her father, who is on a clerical mission, which will extend over a period of six or eight months. Miss Griffiths does not intend playing any golf during her absence abroad, but hopes to return to England in time for some of the leading tournaments next season.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Golf Union at Leeds on November 19, Miss Cecil Leitch will propose that the present rules for "scratch" be abolished from January next, that the Open Champion be on that mark so long as she holds the title, and that no player other than the Open Champion shall be put on the scratch mark unless within the previous 12 months she has returned one score on three separate courses, each of which equals or beats the scratch score, which must not be lower than 75.

The death has occurred at Southampton of the famous old rowing Blue and authority on the sport, Mr. Walter Bradford Woodgate, in his eighty-first year. The eldest son of the late Canon H. A. Woodgate, he was educated at Rodley and Brasenose College Oxford, and rowed in his University eight in 1862, and following year, while in 1864 he won the diamond sculls at Henley. In addition to many triumphs as an oarsman he was for many years celebrated as a coach, while he was also a prolific writer on the sport. By profession he was a barrister. Despite his great age, Mr. Woodgate during the war joined the veteran athletes section of the 2nd Battalion City of London Volunteers, and took part in the construction of the defences of London, as well as undertaking guard duties.

the Cathedral has to be closed for any length of time and the expense is likely to be considerable.
